

SCRIPTURE

JOHN 14:15-31

Prayer

Lord, Thank you that you promise us the Holy Spirit. Thank you that you give an advocate to help us and be with us forever (the spirit of truth). Thank you that the Holy Spirit lives within us to be our shelter and guidance.

I pray that _____ may know when the Holy Spirit is guiding him. Thank you for turning ashes into beauty. Thank you for loving us so much you died on the cross to save us from our shame. May my husband not dwell on his past or any mistakes he has made or may make. I thank you that your commandment is to love others as you have loved us. May he remember this daily. I pray for Shan that he is reminded of your teaching Lord. I thank you for the peace you give. I pray that it overwhelms _____ heart. When he gets caught up in his thoughts or what the world says or tries to offer let him be reminded of only the peace you provide. Protect his heart. Let him rise in confidence in all that he does because of the confidence he has in you. Thank you for the reminder that we will see your goodness no matter where we go or have been,

In Jesus name, Amen.
